

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

ROCKLAND D. JOHNSON, Petitioner,

v.

MARTY SIRMONS, Warden,
Respondent.

Case No. 04-CV-724-P(C)

FILED
DEC 22 2004
Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS FOR FAILING TO EXHAUST STATE REMEDIES

Comes Now the Attorney General of the State of Oklahoma, W.A. Drew Edmondson, and pursuant to this Court's Order and in response to Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus files the following response and seeks to dismiss the instant petition as Petitioner has failed to exhaust state remedies.

The Advisory Committee note to Rule 5 of the Rules Governing § 2254 cases in the United States District Courts states:

An alleged failure to exhaust state remedies as to any ground in the petition may be raised by a motion by the attorney general thus avoiding the necessity of a formal answer as to that ground.

Therefore, rather than a formal answer or response hereto and in light of the authority set out herein, the Respondent hereby files a Motion to Dismiss simultaneously with the filing of the Brief in Support of Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Exhaust Necessary State Remedies.

ARGUMENTS AND AUTHORITIES

PETITIONER HAS FAILED TO EXHAUST HIS STATE COURT
REMEDIES AND FEDERAL REVIEW SHOULD BE DENIED.

Petitioner is challenging his conviction out of Tulsa County where he was found guilty of two counts on first degree murder. The Petitioner filed a direct appeal to the highest state court (See Exhibit 1). Petitioner admits that in the direct appeal he did not raise the two issues which he raises in his present habeas petition. The Petitioner admits and the record supports Petitioner's claim that he has raised the two issues presented in a petition for post-conviction relief, which was denied by the Tulsa County District Court on October 20, 2004. (See Exhibit 2). Petitioner has appealed this post-conviction denial with the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals ("OCCA"), whose decision is pending. It is the position of the Respondent that Petitioner has an effective state court remedy available and since that effective state court remedy is pending, the issues are not exhausted. 28 U.S.C. § 2254 (b)(3)(c).

The law is clear that as Petitioner is alleging ineffective assistance of appellate counsel as his "cause", he must exhaust that issue in the state court before coming to federal court. Murray v. Carrier, 477 U.S. 478, 489, 106 S.Ct. 2639, 91 L.Ed.2d 397 (1986)(the ineffective assistance of appellate counsel claim must be presented to the state courts as an independent claim before it may be used to establish cause for a procedural default); Edwards v. Carpenter, 529 U.S. 446, 453, 120 S.Ct. 1587, 146 L.Ed.2d 518 (2000); Shaffer v. Boone, 3 Fed. Appx, 675, 2001 WL 23135 (10th Cir. January 31, 2001). (Exhibit 3). A federal habeas corpus request is not the appropriate avenue when the Petitioner has not exhausted his state court remedies and has an available state remedy. It is Petitioner's burden to prove exhaustion and he has failed to demonstrate the satisfaction of the exhaustion requirement. Miranda v. Cooper, 967 F.2d 392, 398 (10th Cir. 1992). Petitioner must give the state courts a fair presentation of these issues in order for Petitioner to exhaust his state court remedies. Castilles v. Peoples, 489 U.S. 346 (1989). The state courts must have had an opportunity to pass on the claims in light of a full record and where the factual basis for a claim was not presented to the state courts, the claim is unexhausted. Jones v. Hess, 681 F.2d 688 (10th Cir. 1982). It is not sufficient merely that the Petitioner's case is pending, "rather he must have given the state's highest court a 'fair opportunity' to address his claims." Picard v. Connor, 404 U.S. 270, 275-276 (1971).

In Hernandez v. Starbuck, 69 F.3d 1089, 1094 (10th Cir. 1995), the Petitioner presented a challenge to counsel's performance without exhausting state court remedies. The Tenth Circuit held:

Because Mr. Hernandez failed to exhaust his ineffective assistance claim, his petition for a writ of habeas corpus contains at least one unexhausted claim. A federal court presented with a habeas corpus petition containing both exhausted and unexhausted claims should normally dismiss the entire petition without prejudice. Rose v. Lundy, 455 U.S. 509, 510, 102 S.Ct. 1198, 1199, 71 L.Ed.2d 379 (1982). The narrow circumstances in which a federal court may consider the merits of a habeas petition containing unexhausted claims are not present in this case. See Granberry, 481 U.S. at 134-35, 107 S.Ct. at 1675-76; Miranda, 967 F.2d at 400 ("it is appropriate ... to address the merits of unexhausted ... habeas corpus claims if they fail ... to raise even a colorable federal claim, and if the interests of justice would be better served.").

The Tenth Circuit addressed the importance of the exhaustion doctrine in Demarest v. Price, 130 F.3d 922 (10th Cir. 1997). The Tenth Circuit in Demarest required exhaustion despite the fact that the constitutional issue had been presented but the evidence in support somewhat differed between that presented to the state court and the federal court. The Tenth Circuit, quoting from Supreme Court precedent, reiterated that "fair presentation" to the state court means that the substance of the claim must be raised giving the state courts a fair opportunity to apply controlling legal principles to the facts bearing upon his constitutional claim. Demarest, 130 F .3d at 932.

Petitioner's two grounds for relief have been fairly presented to the state court but a ruling on the issues presented is still pending. For this reason, the Petitioner's petition for writ of habeas corpus must be dismissed.

THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA,

Appellee.

NOT FOR PUBLICATION

Case No. F-2002-685

SUMMARY OPINION

LUMPKIN, JUDGE:

Appellant, Rockland Dejarion Johnson, was tried by jury in the District Court of Tulsa County, Case Number CF-2001-4067 and convicted of two counts of First Degree Murder, in violation of 21 O.S.2001, § 701.7. The jury set punishment at life imprisonment on each count. The trial judge sentenced Appellant in accordance with the jury's determination, ordering the sentences to run consecutively. Appellant now appeals his convictions and sentences.

Appellant raises the following propositions of error in this appeal:

- I. The accomplice testimony was not corroborated, and the trial court's failure to instruct the jury that a witness who testified against Appellant was an accomplice whose testimony had to be corroborated, deprived Appellant of a fair trial;
- II. The trial court erred by allowing highly prejudicial photographs to be admitted into evidence over objection; and
- III. Appellant's sentence is excessive and should be modified to run concurrently, rather than consecutively.

After thoroughly considering these propositions and the entire record before us, we find reversal or modification is not required.

With respect to proposition one, we find little, if any, evidence supporting the claim that Erica Eaton was an accomplice, even as an aider and abettor. Assuming, arguendo, this matter should have been submitted to the jury sua sponte for determination, any possible error was harmless, as Eaton's testimony was sufficiently corroborated. Simpson v. State, 876 P.2d 690, 693 (Okla. Cr. 1994); Spears v. State, 900 P.2d 431, 440 (Okla. Cr. 1995); Carter v. State, 879 P.2d 1234, 1246 (Okla. Cr. 1994); Bryson v. State, 876 P.2d 240, 256 (Okla. Cr. 1994); Bowie v. State, 906 P.2d 759, 763 (Okla. Cr. 1995); Omalza v. State, 911 P.2d 286, 301-02 (Okla. Cr. 1995). Furthermore, Appellant's sufficiency of the evidence claim fails. Spuehler v. State, 709 P.2d 202, 203-04 (Okla. Cr. 1985).

With respect to proposition two, we find the trial court did not abuse its discretion or err in admitting the photographs. Welch v. State, 2 P.3d 356, 371 (Okla. Cr. 2000); Phillips v. State, 989 P.2d 1017, 1032 (Okla. Cr. 1999). With respect to proposition three, we find it was not excessive to run the sentences consecutively. Rea v. State, 34 P.3d 148, 149 (Okla. Cr. 2001).

DECISION

The judgments and sentences are hereby AFFIRMED.

Shaffer v. Boone

2001 10CIR 51

242 F.3d 390

Case Number: 00-5155

Decided: 01/10/2001

Modified: 01/31/2001

10th Cir.(Okla.)

Cite as: 2001 10CIR 51, 242 F.3d 390

This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. The court generally disfavors the citation of orders and judgments; nevertheless, an order and judgment may be cited under the terms and conditions of 10th Cir. R. 36.3.

DOUGLAS C. SHAFFER, Petitioner-Appellant,
v.
BOBBY BOONE, Warden, Respondent-Appellee.

(D.C. No. 96-CV-1141-K)(N.D. Okla.)

ORDER AND JUDGMENT*

Before BALDOCK, HENRY, and LUCERO, Circuit Judges.²

HENRY, Circuit Judge.

¶1 Douglas Shaffer, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, seeks a certificate of appealability ("COA") after the district court dismissed his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas petition. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1)(A) (providing that a COA is a necessary predicate to any appeal from a final order in a § 2254 proceeding). Because Mr. Shaffer has not "made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right," id. § 2253(c)(2), this court denies his request for a COA and dismisses this appeal.

¶2 Mr. Shaffer was convicted of second-degree felony murder after prior conviction of two or more felonies. He was sentenced to sixty years' imprisonment. In his habeas petition, together with his amended petitions, Mr. Shaffer raised eleven grounds of error: (1) ineffective assistance of trial counsel; (2) violation of the Sixth Amendment's confrontation clause through the admission of a nontestifying codefendant's confession; (3) reversible error resulting from the prosecutor's comments regarding Mr. Shaffer's Fifth Amendment right to remain silent; (4) denial of due process through the prosecutor's improper closing argument; (5) ineffective assistance of appellate counsel; (6) violation of the Fifth Amendment through the trial court's instructions; (7) failure of the information to state all the essential elements of the underlying crime; (8) erroneous sentence enhancement; (9) the state court's lack of subject matter jurisdiction; (10) actual innocence of past convictions considered at sentencing; and (11) violation of due process through extension of leniency to Mr. Shaffer's codefendant in exchange for her testimony against him. The district court denied the first four claims on the merits; dismissed claims five, six, eight, ten, and eleven as procedurally barred absent prejudice or fundamental miscarriage of justice; and denied claims seven and nine as not cognizable in federal habeas. This appeal followed.

¶3 We construe Mr. Shaffer's allegations liberally, pursuant to Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520-21 (1972). After a careful review of the record and the applicable case law, we conclude that Mr. Shaffer fails to make a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right as required under 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2) for a COA. Specifically, Mr. Shaffer fails to demonstrate "reasonable jurists would find the district court's assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong." Slack v. McDaniel, 120 S. Ct. 1595, 1604 (2000). Because we agree with the district court's well-reasoned assessment of the issues presented on appeal, we decline to duplicate the same analysis here.

¶4 Accordingly, for substantially the same reasons set forth in the district court's June 21, 2000, Order, a copy of which is attached, we DENY Mr. Shaffer's motion for a COA and DISMISS his appeal.

*. This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. The court generally disfavors the citation of orders and judgments; nevertheless, an order and judgment may be cited under the terms and conditions of 10th Cir. R. 36.3.

². After examining the briefs and appellate record, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2); 10th Cir. R. 34.1(G). The case is therefore ordered submitted without oral argument.
